

Conservative Solutions for Utah: At the Intersection of Water, Energy & Climate

How are you being impacted by climate change locally and what do you think should be done about it? Climate advocate Bill Barron, who is cycling 650 miles across Utah, welcomes you to share your viewpoints in a community conversation with elected leaders and experts in Kanab.

Panelists include:

- Kane County Commissioner Andy Gant
- Chair, Kane County Water Conservancy, Ben Clarkson
- Utah Clean Energy, Logan Mitchell
- Kanab City Councilor, Scott Colson
- Energy Advisor Garkane Energy, James Clegg
